KURO IN DANGER Beds

The Great Russian General in a Tight Corner

PORT ARTHUR WILL SOON FALL

Japs Take Many Prisoners and Make Good Headway

JAPS CAPTURE MANY PRISONERS.

London, Sept. 13th.—The Morning Post states that official Russian despatches received in London announce that Lieut. Gen. Zassalitch, who commanded the portion of the Russian rear guard south of the Hun river has been severely wounded and captured with 3000 out of 5000 of his men. It is added by the Morning Post that Generals Zarouheff, Kondratovitch and Bilderling have checked Gen. Kuroki's advance.

The war summary up to date is:—Blood has ceased to flow in Manchuria. The sanguinary side of the Russo-Japanese conflict is not now in evidence and with the practical suspension of news from the front the interest for the time centres in rumors that Viceroy Alexieff has resigned and as reported Sunday that Gen. Kurapatkin is to be replaced by Lieut. Gen. Kinevitch now in command of the forces at Vladivostok and other statements which cannot be traced to authentic sources, but all of which, if true, would have a most important bearing on the situation. One Russian correspondent points out that when the Japanese withdraw from the Russian front it is usually the precursor of their appearance on the flank and he thinks the indications point to a winter campaign.

PORT ARTHUR SIEGE WILL SOON END.

Interest again turns to Port Arthur and to the effect which the Russian defeat at Liao Yang is likely to have on the Garrison and the fear is expressed that the siege will soon end.

St. Petersburg, September 13th.—The published report in Paris to-day that Rear Admiral Prince Ouktomsky had been tried by court martial and shot for disobeying the order not to return to Port Arthur after the sortie of the Russian squadron on Aug. 10th is untrue. He has not been tried by court martial but will be recalled.

London, Sept. 13th.—A Yinkow cable says that the Liao Yang missionaries are all safe.

Gen. Kuroki's headquarters in the field near Liao Yang, Sept. 8, (delayed).—The battle of Liao Yang was a magnificent victory of which the Japanese have great reasons to be proud, although they were unable to realize their hopes of another Sedan. It is questioned that at Liao Yang Gen. Kurapatkin expected to turn the tide of war against the Japs. It would now appear that the fighting of the last few weeks was expected to be decisive but was a series of preliminary operations to harass the Japs and gain time for the crucial struggle.

KUROKI'S COMMUNICATION HAS NOT BEEN CUT.

The sensational report circulated by the London Morning Post to the effect that Gen. Seassalitch's corps had been captured and Seassalitch wounded proves to be false. An authoritative denial is given that report as well as various others originating in the British and European press, particularly the London Daily Mail's statement that Gen. Linevitch had marched into eastern Corea and cut Kuroki's communication with Feng Wang Cheng and the Paris report that Rear Admiral Prince Ouktomsky had been tried by court martial and sentenced to be shot for disobeying orders in returning to Port Arthur after the sortie of Aug. 10th.

To-day has brought no news of a positive character from either the Russian or Japanese army. There has been no fighting and if any movements are being carried out they are thoroughly veiled. The rains continue and it is probable that with impassable roads and the exhausted condition of both armies no extended operations are immediately probable.

KURAPATKIN IS IN DANGER.

London, Sept. 14th.—There has been no renewal of the fighting on a large scale between the Russian and Japanese armies in the far east. At St. Petersburg the people are harassed by rumors of impending disaster to Gen. Kurapatkin which find ready credence because of the lack of official information from the General's headquarters at Mukden and for the moment the popularity of the head of the Russian armies in the field is in an eclipse. In the Capitol, too, there is much uneasiness felt lest the Japanese advance in Manchuria should afford occasion for the growth of an anti-Russian spirit in China and the ultimate projection of that power into the conflict.

Berlin, Sept. 14th.—The Tageblatt's St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs that the departure of the Baltic squadron has been deferred for several days.

San Francisco, Sept. 14th.—The Russian transport Lena is still at anchor in this harbor guarded by several vessels belonging to the fleet of Rear Admiral Godeich. Capt. John K. Bulger United States inspector of hulls and boilers acting under instructions from the Collector of the Port this morning began an examination of the Lena's boilers.

NEW PUBLIC SCHOOL*ON MACKAY AVENUE

Construction Work Proceeding Rapidly
Will be Ready for Occupation Next Midsummer

Construction work is proceeding rapidly on the new Mackay avenue public school. The basement walls are now completed, and work on the super-structure will be hurried forward.

The school will have a commanding situation on the high bank of the Saskatchewan, and will be a credit to the city and the cause of education in the West generally.

The building will be a brick and stone structure, seventy-three feet by ninety feet. It will consist of a full-sized basement with a first and second floor and an assembly room. There will be eight classrooms in the school.

Arrangements have been made so that two class-rooms can be placed in the basement should occasion demand it. In the meantime they will be left unfinished. In addition to these in the basement are two play-rooms, 26 by 34 feet, for the boys and girls. The building will be heated by hot water, and the heating and ventilating system will be regulated from the basement. The boys and girls closets will be in the basement.

On the ground floor will be four class-rooms, 26 by 34, with the usual halls. There will be three entrances to the school, one on Mackay avenue, one on Fourth street, and the other on the school property to the west side of the building. The front entrance will be of Calgary sandstone with round columns, and the plasters with carved capitals of all of rubble stone. The balance of the building will be rock faced.

On the second floor there will also be four class-rooms 26 by 34, the same size as those on the ground floor. In addition to these there will be a principal's room, 9 by 10, a library, 17 by 19, and teachers' room, 9 by 10. As on the ground floor, there will be wardrobes for each class-room.

The assembly hall will be sixty feet by seventy feet, and will be lighted by four large corner windows and a large skylight.

It is expected that the new school will be ready for occupation by next midsummer. The contractor is R. J. Manson, Pheasay & Balson have the sub-contract for the mason work, H. D. Johnston is the architect.

Railroad Improvements For Lethbridge

News:

A union station, freight department, round house and other railway terminals are contemplated. A conference has taken place between E. T. Galt, president of the A.R. & C. Co. and members of the town council, and as a result of that discussion a resolution was passed at the last meeting binding the council to submit a bylaw to be voted upon by the ratepayers, giving exemption from taxation for a period of twenty years on a fifty acre tract of land and the improvements thereon.

E. T. Galt and P. L. Naismith will discuss the arrangement with the C.P.R. authorities. The probability is that a satisfactory conclusion will be arrived at, and the matter will then be placed definitely before the tax-payers.

The parties concerned in the arrangement are the Canadian Pacific railway and the Alberta Railway and Coal Company. The proposal includes the erection of a handsome brick and stone union passenger station, situated south of the present tracks, opposite the Catholic church. A freight shed nearly 500 feet long on the company's vacant property abutting on Baroness road, opposite the Arlington Hotel, a ten stall roundhouse, and several miles of new track and sidings. The estimated expenditure is between $50,000 and $80,000.

The establishment of C.P.R. terminals here would give Lethbridge a greatly improved railway service, as we understand the Crow's Nest local running from McLeod to Cranbrook, would then start from here, and the C. & E. train from Calgary would also run into town. It is understood that about 150 railroad and track men would be affected by the change many of whom would necessarily make their home in Lethbridge.

Some such proposition has been anticipated since the visit of prominent officials of the C.P.R. in the spring, and realization appears to be now only lacking the necessary assent of tax-payers to the exemption bylaw. As soon as this is given work will be pushed ahead with all possible speed.

We also have ranges without high closets very much cheaper, that have very large ovens, large fire places and are built especially for farmers use.

It seems absurd to us that Steel Ranges can be sold at prices nearly double what we are asking, that have not got nearly as many good points to recommend them as our $48 Ranges. Our $48 Range is heavier, larger both in oven and fire place,

ALBERTA PRAISED

WELL KNOWN STORY WRITER

Speakes Enthusiastically of Northern Alberta and Edmonton. Brilliant
Future Predicted

Cy. Warman writes as follows to the Toronto Globe from Edmonton: Eight hundred miles west of Winnipeg, near the foot of the Rockies, lies Calgary. We reached this town at 2 a.m. At 7.45 we were off for Edmonton, 200 miles due north of Calgary. Contrary to our expectations the country as we go north grows more beautiful. There are more fields planted with wheat, oats and barley. Here at a new town we find a grain elevator and see old straw stacks in the distance. Vast reaches of these wild lands are now under fence, and in these far-flung fields fat horses are frolicking and in other fields fat, knee creep lazily along the margin of a little lake bellying deep in wild grass.

As we near Edmonton the kitchen gardens are more and more in evidence about the farm houses. The potatoes are hip-high to the boy who is bugging them. All day along the way I have seen women and children gathering something in the fields or open prairies. Now a woman passes under my window as we slow up for a station, and I see down in the quart cup she carries it is full of red-ripe strawberries. I spoke to a fellow passenger and he told me there was plenty of wild berries growing here. Once, he said he took his entire family out, his wife and nine children, and they gathered a washtub full of gooseberries in an afternoon. Some of us smiled, but his daughter who sat beside him, said it was so, and when we looked into her big honest blue eyes we did believe.

As the afternoon wears away and we are doing the last half of the last hundred miles there lies on either side of our train a land as fair as one will see in many days' travel. Broad, level vales, dotted with clumps of willow, vast reaches of rolling plains, whose downs are dappled with patches of wild bloom fringed with poplar groves. Surely here lies the sportsman's paradise, for ever across the open space, from clump to clump, wild chickens are hurrying with their young. Whatever these vast regions hold for future settlers, whether it be good land or bad land, it is certainly glorious, inspiring and fair to look upon.

For hours we ride with a long, low ridge, a miniature mountain range beside us bulking blue against the grey eastern sky. Along the lay of this low range lies an almost unbroken chain of ranches. They seem through the haze of six or eight miles of sunlit ether to sit on the slope like painted pictures on easels, tipped to catch the sun. Here, not many years ago, a large land company secured a strip of land eighteen by thirty miles, for which they paid a dollar an acre. It has all been sold to settlers, and is now, thanks to the pathfinders who built the railway, worth from ten to twenty dollars an acre. I was told by trappers, travellers and settlers that this ridge, or range, is only from five to ten miles wide, that it is full of coal, and that along the eastern slope newcomers had marked out new homes and were prosperous and happy. All through this chinook-fanned region horses range the year round, cattle are fed in winter—fed on wild hay—but never housed. Only the calves have an open shed. Three years ago there was no sleighing in Northern Alberta. Last year deep drifts were all melted by the first of February. While the municipal snowploughs were bucking the beautiful from the choked streets of the towns in Ontario, in the middle of April last the farmers in the far North-West were preparing to plough their fields, such is the far-reaching effects of the gentle Japanese current, and the consequent warm west wind.

The same material changes noted by the traveller southbound, say, on the Illinois Central are marked here by the traveller northbound in Alberta. Now we pass a potato field in full bloom, and when a wag tells us that we are about to hit the banana belt of the Peace River we are half inclined to believe him.

The long glad cry of the locomotive proclaims a stop and the trainmen hurrying through tell us this is Strathcona, the end of the track. The panting engine pauses with her pilot near a deep gash in the plain for here the great Saskatchewan ploughs a huge furrow in the face of the earth, two hundred feet deep and a mile wide. There are no steamboats in sight, but many scows are loading along the landing for Battleford and other points down stream. Directly across the canyon lies Edmonton, the chief town of the far North-West. Along the rivers are elevators, breweries, lumber yards and planing mills. Immediately below the rim on which we stand, but beyond the river, are the fair grounds, and here in this far-away corner of the earth in this new town 10,000 people are gathered to see the art in the free-for-all. Through our glasses we gaze on an animated scene. Yes, this is the real thing, the old-time country fair, with all its trimmings. There are the country carriages, top buggies, the man with the balloons, the fakir, horses, and gingerbread—everything in fact that we had not expected.

This is called the gum, and it covers the surface with a moist glutinous exudation.

Tobacco, to be good, must have all this gum driven out.

In Manicaragua I procure tobacco that has all this gum "sweated" by the natural heat of the climate.

Only the dry, well matured leaf remains—the leaf that when I age for three years will give a cool, fragrant smoke—odorless and aromatic—that's the characteristic odor of my Pharaoh.

COUNCIL MEETING

SEVERAL PETITIONS

For Side Walks and Water and Sewer Service Discussed. By-Laws Passed

The regular meeting of the council was held in the usual place last night, Mayor Short, Councillors Cushing, Grieron, Fraser, Picard and May were present.

Principal Riddle, of Alberta College first addressed the Council. He asked that the college property be exempt from taxation and stated his reasons in support of this request. Every move tending to make Edmonton a commercial centre should be aided by the municipal authorities. The college was doing good work. Students would be in attendance from all parts of Alberta, including Claresholm, McLeod, and High River, in Southern Alberta. He advocated the council adopting a broad-minded policy in dealing with this as well as all other educational institutions. The councillors expressed themselves as heartily in accord with the opinions of Principal Riddle. The question was referred to the finance committee, they being also instructed to formulate a plan to adopt in all future dealings with similar questions, and to report at the next meeting of the council.

J. B. Lubbock was present and asked the council to amend the by-law regulating the location of live-ry stables in order to allow him to build on the south half of the block immediately north of the market square. He stated that he would construct a creditable stable and that Dr. Pickering would construct an office and hospital stable immediately joining him. The property on which it is proposed to erect these buildings is one hundred feet west of the Sutter property. The request met with the unanimous support of the council and the solicitor was instructed to amend the by-law excluding from the closed limits one half of the block immediately north of the market.

The minutes of the last meeting were then read and adopted.

Communications:

The Allis, Chalmers, Bullock Company wrote that the machinery for the power house had been shipped the first of the month.

Some time was spent on the discussion of the disposal of the city debentures which arose out of a letter from Jno. McKay & Co., on this matter. Other firms had written regarding an option on the debentures, and the solicitor was instructed to communicate with these.

Dobson, Jackson & Fry asked that their hold back of five per cent on their contract price on the laying of the waterworks and sewers be now paid. It transpired that there were heavy counter charges against these contractors owing to the saving in of excavations. The matter was referred to the city engineer and the secretary-treasurer.

In reply to a letter from the Mayor, F. W. G. Haultain, Premier of the Territories, stated that he would be unable to visit Edmonton before the approaching session of the local House, but that he hoped to visit our city very shortly after the conclusion of the session.

Ross Bros. have the contract for installing the heating system in the new municipal building. Since this contract was awarded the council decided to make the building considerably larger by extending it twelve feet. The contractors for the heating claim $325 in addition to their contract price for the extra heating. This matter was referred to the Board of Works committee.

C. W. Satter presented a bill for $200 for two thousand copies of his pamphlet which had been forwarded to the Toronto exhibition, in the opinion of the council these pamphlets had been paid for in the vote of $200 already made to the pamphlet.

Petitions: The petition for a sidewalk along the west side of Kinistino avenue from Sixth street to Rat Creek was discussed. Outside of the first two blocks there are very few houses along this frontage. It was decided to construct the sidewalk from Sixth to Eighth street provided it be found sufficiently signed.

A petition numerously signed for an extension of the waterworks and sewerage system along Fourth street river lot twelve from Namayo to Kinistino avenue, was presented, the engineer was instructed to ascertain if these applicants would guarantee a paying service and if so, the work will be commenced this fall if possible.

and if not, early in the spring. The city engineer was instructed to bring in a report on the advisability of extending the water and sewer system along Namayo avenue.

The adjoining property holders asked for the grading of Twelfth street, H.B.R. from Jasper to Victoria avenue. The petition was granted, and the engineer was instructed to see that the work be proceeded with in such a way that boulevarding may be done later.

Local merchant tailors petitioned for protection from pedlars from Toronto and other places. These have been selling in Edmonton from door to door. This was referred to the license committee, the secretary-treasurer being instructed to write other Western Canadian cities regarding the imposition of such a license.

Reports:

The health officer was to have brought in a report on the condition of the General Hospital sewer. Business prevented his appearance. However reports were read on this subject from Drs. McInnis and Wilson. Discussion was deferred for the meantime on this question.

The question of running part of the municipal lights from Fraser's mill while the new machinery was being installed in the power house was discussed. Engineer McNaughton reported on this question. The expense of so doing would be about $455, and the revenue would be about $200. The shut-down of the best light would be for not less than sixteen days. No action was taken. The secretary-treasurer was instructed to wire to the Robb Engineering Company to trace the small exciter engine.

A. W. Ormsley, city electrician, on the removal of the small building from the market square, formerly used as a dog pound. The matter was referred to the Board of Works committee.

The city solicitor reported of the poll in connection with the by-law providing for the straightening and extension of Jasper avenue east. The by-law was then finally passed and the matter held over for discussion at an adjourned meeting of the council to be held on Friday afternoon next at four o'clock.

By-law No. 280, establishing a system of water rates was given its third reading.

The council adjourned to the secretary's office for discussion in committee of the whole.

The council then adjourned to meet Friday afternoon at four o'clock.

REGARDING THE ELECTIONS

In Reply to a direct Question the Premier Gives a Non-Committal Answer

Bulletin Special Dispatch.

Ottawa, Sept. 13th.—Asked this morning whether a date had yet been set for the general election, Premier Laurier said: "Must be first settled whether we are to have one." Lord Minto, he added, "is in the West, and will not be back to Ottawa till the first of October." That was all the Premier would say.

The common expectation here is that the Dominion Government will appear to the country early in November.

Bulletin Special Dispatch.

Winnipeg, Sept. 14th.—Early dissolution has become a settled conviction which the Prime Minister has not discouraged.

The Prime Minister will conform strictly to constitutional usage in the matter, and will wait on Lord Minto upon his return and inform him formally of the reasons for which parliament should dissolve. As his excellency will not return to the capital until a week from Monday the proclamation dissolving parliament and announcing the date of the general elections will not be made before September 28th. Indeed it may be delayed beyond that date. As the usual period between dissolution and elections is twenty days it would thus be possible to have voting take place during the last week in October, say October 27th.

C. P. R. HOLD UP

ROBBERS STILL AT LARGE

Scene of Great Confusion on the Train When the Robbers were at hand

Vancouver, Sept. 14th.—No further news has been received of the train robbers.

This is the first holdup on the C. P. R., if not in all Canada. The robbers were evidently after the clean-up of the Cariboo Consolidated Company.

The wildest confusion followed among the passengers when the train was stopped. Someone fired a shot toward the locomotive where the tragedy was being enacted. The conductor rushed back and racing through the cars screamed, "Bandits, conceal your valuables."

The people in the sleepers jerked off their watches and rings and flung them under the seats, into the spittoons and crevices. Many women screamed and the excitement was intense. In the day coaches the condition was even more disturbing. The porter called out the danger and with the report that the agent of the express car had been killed, the people were wild.

The robbers acted with the utmost coolness. They were evidently experts. They spoke with a distinct Yankee accent. While ordering the conductor back into the coaches the men swore viciously and swung their heavy guns around menacingly.

THE RAILWAY COMMISSION

Visit Edmonton and District. They Inspect the Railway Situation at Edmonton to have a Knowledge of Local Condition for Future use.

The Railway Commission arrived in the city last night on the regular train from the south. The party included: Hon. A. G. Blair, chairman of the Railway Commission; Dr. Mills, a member of the Commission; A. Geo. Blair Jr., secretary of the Commission; and Mr. Butchart. Hon. Mr. Bernier, another member of the Railway Commission remains in Ottawa during the visit of the other members of the Commission to the west. The ladies of the party are Mrs. and Miss Mills; and Mrs. Randolph and Miss Blair, daughters of the Hon. A. G. Blair.

The party were met at the station by the committee appointed for that purpose which included Mayor Short, J. H. Morris, president of the Board of Trade and F. Oliver, M. P. The party were taken for a turn about the city and immediate vicinity, part taking the automobile and the others a carriage. They visited the C. N. R. station grounds, the site of the C. N. R. co-sag of Red Creek and the C. N. R. grade on the Great estate. In the course of the drive the party were shown the lands being negotiated for with a view to the location of the Grand Trunk station sidings and shops and also the site of the surveys for the proposed C. P. R. high level bridge across the Saskat. bewan.

Dr. Mills left for the Fort this morning by automobile accompanied by Mayor Short. They went down by the south side and returned by way of the Sturgeon.

The Commission is holding a sitting in the town hall at two o'clock this afternoon and leaves for Strathcona at 3:30 o'clock.

Owing to the amount of shooting that has been going on lately ducks are becoming very scarce in this locality.

A Very Rich Country

Free Press:

Mr. Alex. Livingston has returned to the city from the Peace river country, where he spent eighteen months exploring for coal and timber. He went to the head waters of the Peace and explored the region thoroughly. Last winter he covered 900 miles on snow shoes, each man of the party carrying his own outfit on his back. Owing to the difficulty of transporting supplies, no provisions, with the exception of tea, were taken, and fish and game were entirely depended upon for sustenance. Mr. Livingston's appearance would indicate that the fare was not bad. The party slept out every night, winter and summer, without other covering than their blankets, and only on a few occasions suffered discomfort.

Mr. Livingston states that there are vast tracts of magnificent land in the territory traversed by him and declares it is the coming section in the West. He says one cannot get a fair conception of the richness of the country by merely traversing the waterways and making observations from the embankments. The country must be traversed and investigated in detail to gain a proper knowledge of the value of the land for agricultural and other industrial purposes.

Mr. Livingston is strongly of the opinion that the country will settle up rapidly as soon as it is made accessible by the construction of railroads. He met parties of cattlemen from the western states looking for suitable cattle ranges. Those whom he spoke to were highly pleased with the country. They thought it would become a great cattle district, and Mr. Livingston is of the same opinion.

Speaking of his explorations for timber and coal Mr. Livingston said he had been most successful as his reports, which are at present confidential to the companies he represents, will show. It is understood that he was sent out in the interest of a railway company and also by a couple of private corporations.
